

Project №5 of the JSC "Science Foundation", grant to commercialize the results of scientific and (or) scientific and technical activities «Внедрение ресурсосберегающих технологий переработки верблюжьего мяса для производства мясных и мясорастительных консервов».

Project Manager – Ass.professor Suleimenova Zh.M.

The amount of funding - 150 000 000тенге.

The implementation period of 2017-2018.

The aim of the project is the introduction of resource-saving science-based technologies for the processing of camel meat into canned meat and meat and cereal canned products, in innovative packaging - retort bags and lamister vessels, in a newly created mini-factory.

8 undergraduates of the specialty 6M073500 - Food safety are involved in research on projects and for practical training.

The results of the research will be introduced into the educational process, 2 books will be published in the state language for undergraduates enrolled in the specialties "Technology of food products" and "Biotechnology"

In addition, the department actively participated in the competition for grant financing of the MES RK for 2018-2020. From the department 10 applications were submitted (2 projects - Ospanov A.A., 2 projects - Smagulov AK, 2 projects - Dilmukhanbetov E.E., 2 projects - Kozhakhmetov M.K., 1 project - Zhamurova V.s ., 1 project - Musayeva SD). As a result of the last competition 1 project was approved for funding.