Subject : Invitation to UI GreenMetric Information Session 2025 – Central Asia, East Asia, Southeast Asia & Australia (Part Two)

Dear Honorable University Leaders,

The UI GreenMetric World University Rankings, with over 1,477 participating universities from 95 countries in 2024, has become a global platform for measuring and encouraging sustainability practices in higher education. From climate action and energy efficiency to sustainable transportation and campus learning environments, universities are driving positive change through innovation and leadership.

We are pleased to invite you to join the UI GreenMetric Information Session 2025 – Central Asia, East Asia, Southeast Asia & Australia (Part Two) on:

- Date: Friday, 22 August 2025
- Time: 13.30–15.00 WIB / 14.30–16.00 MYT/SGT/PHT / 15.30–17.00 JST/KST / 16.30–18.00 AEST

This online event is designed to support your institution's sustainability journey. The session will cover updates to our methodology, provide practical guidance on strengthening participation in the rankings, and offer benchmarking opportunities with peer institutions in your region.

For participants who were unable to attend the previous regional session, this is a great chance to register and take part.

Please register through the following link:

We encourage the participation of university leaders, sustainability coordinators, and data reporting teams. This is a unique opportunity to enhance your institution's impact and connect with peer institutions across the region.

We look forward to welcoming your institution to this meaningful session.

Warm regards,
Chairperson of UI GreenMetric,

Ishnu Juwono, S.E., M.I.A., Ph.D.
